City Council May Revoke Depot-Franchise-Concert Tour of Miss Ramsey.

Special Correspondence: Provo, Utah Co., Nov. 4.—At the meeting of the city council held Monday evening the matter of the new depot for Provo received consideration by the recorder being instructed to write the San Pedro and the Oregon Short Line Railroad companies for reasons, if they have any why a certain resolution massed by the city council Sept. 15, 1962, should not be annuited. At that time the railroad company promised to build a depot to cost $10,promised to build a depot to cost $10,-000 provided a certain portion of the street near the depot be dedicated to street purposes perpetually. This was done and according to the agreement of the company the depot was to be built within a year from April 7, 1902, but for some reason the matter has been overlooked by the railroad company.

HIGH TAXES.

Taxes are coming in rather slowly for the time of year, due, no doubt, to the dull times in Dixle and the scarcity of money. The total levy for St. George is 32 mills, and valuations are high. In a number of instances property was assessed more than the tax payers had just paid for it, consequently there is much complaint against high taxes.
